

Llama O' Rama: COLA Meet & Greet, High Desert Ranch & Home Store Bend, Oregon- April 12, 2013. COCC Vet Tech Scholarship Fundraiser

*Chef Steph COLA Cupcake Queen-3 dozen for Meet & Greet treat
table*

Adrienne & Jim Parker help set up the COLA treat, information & donation tables...

*First time out in public, 8 month old "Night Moves" (Suri, right) and In Like Flynn (Mixed Argentine, left) scope out
the scene*

*Bend Bulletin reporter Leilani Rapaport sets up her camera for interviews with COLA president
Betty Moe, Amy Prutzman the event organizer, and the public . Llama Dreams Argentine babies Hazel & Princess were featured in the newspaper's online video coverage.*

Bend Bulletin reporters Scott Hammers & Leilani Rapaport take shots of McKenzie Ranch llamas...get get a little bit of llama love during their time with us...

Gen & Betty Moe open the pen to show off Llama Dreams Ranch babies Hazel & Princess. COLA member Ron Wilkinson reviews Argentine Llama newsletter, Jim Parker and his new Australian Shepherd pup observe the goings on...

Jennifer Greers and daughter Gabby (age 2), laugh while seeing a baby llama (Night Moves), being held by Amy Prutzman (COLA), during the Llama O' Rama at High Desert Ranch & Home in Bend.

Sweet softness and gentle natured, McKenzie Lakes Ranch, "In Like Flynn", curious about all of these people coming around to pet him..

Throughout the day, over 50 children visited with the llamas and enjoyed a treat...the llama kisses were definitely sweeter than the cupcakes!

...adults also got big smiles from our Llama O'Rama

Llama Dreams "Hazel" nuzzles visitors

Gene Moe shows off Argentine "Princess"....

Ms. Zara Geller spent hours with us during the afternoon—and got plenty of Llama Love—she made a very generous donation to the scholarship fund.

